SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTLINE

05:04:15

Theme: Remember the Lord's Message

Memory Verse: Revelation chapter twenty-two verse twelve: "And behold I come quickly; and my reward is with me to give every man according as his work shall be".

Texts: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who always promise good things to His followers, in our memory verse, has a clear message for the faithful believers. He said, He is coming quickly to reward everyone according to his work. As in the physical, so is the spiritual. Those who stay longer at work to do overtime get more salary from our managers in the world, so also is the spiritual. Jesus Christ spent but few years on earth, he affected unlike Methuselah who lived longest but with no single record of life achievement. It is evident that we shall be remembered for what we have done.

Many people today in the church are like Methuselah, longer in the church but have done nothing. As believers, the pertinent question facing us every day is "are we salt and light"? How many people boasting, have benefited from the illumination of the light we profess to have or how many lives are salted? Brethren, the die is cast, the days are far spent, let us redeem the time and act very fast so that multitude will be delivered from eternal damnation. Apostle Paul in his message to the Corinthians said: "But this I say, brethren, the time is short; it remained, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; and they that weep as though they weep not, and; they that rejoice as though they rejoiced not, and they that buy as though they possessed not; and they that use this world, as not abusing it for the fashion of this world passed away"

Brethren let us rise up and shine because there are rewards awaiting us. We shall remain peculiar and precious, holy and chosen generation before the Lord (1 Peter 2:9). We shall reign eternally with Christ in His Kingdom (Revelation 22:5). May the LORD help us in Jesus name, AMEN?
