Theme: PROVISIONS THROUGH THE COVENANT

Memory Verse: John 14:12 “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father”.

Texts: 1 Peter 2:24

Today, our healing covenant is based upon better promises through the finished work of Christ at Calvary. The covenant which God made with Israel is now made available to “whosoever believeth” in Christ. Salvation and healing are now yours, freely by virtue of the redemptive work of Christ. The price that Jesus paid at Calvary purchased full salvation for your body, soul and spirit. You should not allow sickness in your body, soul and spirit.

However, in order to enjoy the benefits of the healing covenant, you need to maintain your relationship with God by manifesting faith and total obedience to the word of God. A stanza from “Jesus only is our Message” echoes these important benefits for believers: Jesus only is our Healer, All our sickness He bare; And His risen life and fullness, All His members still may share. We thank God for thousands who have benefits from the healing covenant. We have seen remarkable answers to prayers and proved the efficacy of the healing covenant.

All kinds of diseases have been healed. Even a sceptic will find it difficult to doubt the possibility of enjoying healing and health if such a person reads the Bible with an open mind. That is not all. God has faithfully granted us outstanding miracles as we have claimed the promises of the healing covenant. God has wrought miracles of creation (whereby missing or deformed parts have to be created). We thank God for His word that says: “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do; shall he do; because I go unto my Father” (John 14:12).
