Theme: Divine Invitation Into And Preservation In The Ark

Memory Verse: Genesis chapter seven verse one: "And the Lord said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation"

Texts: 2 Peter 3:3-12, Genesis 6:18-22

God commanded Noah to come and his entire house into the ark. In obedience, he went in and his wife and his sons and their wives with him into the ark. Noah entered into the ark by faith having the assurance that God would accompany him in it and graciously bring him out of it at the end of the flood.

God, in His infinite mercy, made provision for the preservation of different species of animals, birds and creeping creatures by asking Noah to bring in seven pairs of clean and two pairs of unclean ones. The ark was to shelter them from drowning and all food that is eaten was to sustain them from starvation. God was mindful of the welfare of both mortal souls and ordinary animals. He will certainly take care of all that concern the least of His children in our time (Luke 12:6, 7, 32).

Everyone today is counselled to flee from the wrath to come. This is the time to repent and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ as Lord and saviour and walk closely with the Lord. And for those who are already saved, the Lord has promised never to leave or forsake us if we hold to our conviction unto the end. Let everyone in the class say at least one thing that made God to give His divine invitation and preservation of the family of Noah.
