

Theme: CONCIOUS OF DIVINE INHERITANCE

Memory Verse: Revelations 5:10 “And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth”.

Texts: Revelations 2:26-27; 11:15; 20:4-10; 22:5; Daniel 7:18

If indeed we believe and know that we will truly later be made “kings and priest: and we shall reign on earth” in the millennium and in the New Earth forever, why should we then get obsessed with the transient perishable, earthly ritualistic and generally devil-inspired titles on earth?. No real Christian who is a shining example as well as burning light can be so loved by the world to the point of conferring honour on him. Chieftaincy title, traditional honours and all recognition from people whose primary interest and focus is the devil and his continued hold on the people are vicious. The believer must steer clear.

Finally, the use of slings and gutter language is another contemporary vice. The Bible says: “Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt” (Colossians 4:6). Christian language; as salt, should do five things. First, it should sweeten; edify the heart and mind of the hearers. Second, it should purify, not defile or offend; whiteness of salt symbolises purity. Thirdly, it should preserve the hearers from decay and spiritual decomposition. Fourthly, it should be pervasive in its influence, no matter how few the words are, just as a pinch of salt would pervade a whole meal. Fifthly, it should be known for its characteristic.

The Bible says: “...a fools voice is known by multitude of words” (Ecclesiastes 5:3). The Christian’s use of slang’s sourced from brothels, drug addicts, thug-proselytising musicians, “heroes in boxing, sports and theatre makes a believer to be one of them and this dwindles his potential to minister to them. We all then become blind together. And the Bible asks: ...Can the blind lead the blind?” (Luke 6:39). And records again: “Let them alone, they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both shall fall into the ditch” (Mathew 15:14).
