

Theme: THE WAY OUT

Memory Verse: Psalm 34:18 “The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit”.

Texts: Jeremiah 18:8; Luke 3:13; Hosea 6:1-2, 2 Chronicles 7:14

Victims of contemporary vices need a release. The vices are yokes and like every yoke, they must be broken. If we are free from the vices, essentially, we must avoid them like one would do a plague. Whoever has slipped into them should go back to the Lord in repentance and call on the Lord for restoration. Because involvement in these vices is tantamount to loss of eternal life, there is the need to fight manfully.

The Bible says “The kingdom of God suffered violence and the violent take it by force”. Repentance is followed by a return to the Lord (Isaiah 55:7). To return implies one has felt some brokenness and contrition and unto such the Lord is very much keen to save and deliver. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Beloved there is always a way out with Lord. He is a gracious, lovely Saviour.

It is very helpful to see the minister watching over your soul for help. After repentance, returning and restoration, it becomes very necessary to practise the abiding presence of the Lord. Imaging the Lord is ever by you and do only those things that He would approve of. Like David, remember that wherever you are God is there with you. The easiest way for the believer to live in the contemporary times and avoid it vices is to have the Lord in focus everywhere you go. Like Joseph in Potiphar, s house in the land of Egypt the Lord was in focus so sin became very difficult. Oh what a lesson to learn!!!
