

Theme: MAKING LIGHT OF THE ROYAL INVITATION

Memory Verse: Matthew 22:8-9 “Then saith he to his servants, the wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage”.

Texts: Romans 10:12-15

Making light of the royal invitation was not the only offence of the invitees. The Bible records another reaction to the call, which is not only uncalled for, but is actually uncharitable in the extreme. “And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them” (Mathew 22:6). This was very cruel act that invite the wrath of the king.

Obviously, this points to people who do not just stop at disdain God’s call, but go ahead to despise His messengers, and use their position or power to destroy the preachers of God’s word. Such impenitent sinners risk the wrath of God if they do not repent. They should know that the King’s silence does not imply weakness on His part or blindness to the plight of His persecuted prophets.

His hands of judgment is so far held back just because of long-suffering and forbearance with the hope that this would make the sinner retract his steps. This is to show His love for sinners, His faithfulness, mercy and lovely-kindness. As they that if persuasion fail force is apply, so also His judgment shall come when sinners refuse to repent. Beloved it is dangerous thing to fall under the wrath of God. Those who are save should seek with tears in prayers for the salvation of sinners around us.
